

NOTICE TO ALL PERSONS IN CANADA INJECTED WITH EVOLENCE, EVOLENCE CLASSIC OR EVOLENCE BREEZE

A previous class action settlement was made with Johnson & Johnson, Ortho-McNeil-Janssen Pharmaceuticals Inc. (now named Janssen Pharmaceuticals, Inc.), Johnson & Johnson Inc., Janssen-Ortho Inc. (now named Janssen Inc.), and Colbar Lifesciences Ltd. (the “J&J Defendants”), which settlement was approved by the British Columbia Supreme Court and the Ontario Superior Court (the “J&J Settlement”).

The British Columbia Supreme Court has now certified a Canada wide class action against Canderm Pharma Inc. and Anna Maria Duchon (the “Canderm Defendants”) and has approved a without costs with prejudice Discontinuance of the BC Action against the Canderm Defendants to take effect on May 26, 2020. The Ontario Superior Court has permanently stayed the Ontario Action against Canderm Pharma Inc.

The Discontinuance will end all claims against the Canderm Defendants without any further compensation being paid to class members, and will prevent class members from suing the Canderm Defendants in the future, but will not affect in any way the terms of and compensation paid to class members pursuant to the J&J Settlement. Class members will not be required to pay any costs of the Certification and Discontinuance.

If you do not agree with the Discontinuance, you may opt out of the BC Action or submit a written objection to the Discontinuance by Friday May 22, 2020.

As a Class Member, you have the right to:

- opt out of the class action and Discontinuance by sending an opt out form to Class Counsel; or
- object to the Discontinuance by sending your written objection to Class Counsel;
- do nothing, in which case the Certification and Discontinuance will be effective on May 26, 2020 and you will have no further rights to sue the Canderm Defendants in relation to Evolence, Evolence Classic, or Evolence Breeze.

The Certification and Discontinuance against the Canderm Defendants will take effect on Tuesday May 26, 2020 unless any opt outs or objections to the Discontinuance are received on or before midnight on Friday May 22, 2020.

To learn about the Discontinuance, how to opt out, or how to object, please visit: www.evolencediscontinuance.com or contact: Dives Harper Stanger & Mizrahi LLP at 604-605-1407 or ejs@dghcounsel.com